A spirited cheering section was typical at Wilson athletic events. Girls were participants, too. Then there were other types of student competition.

Clara Johnson leads the dancing at the rally. Right is Cynthia Munson.

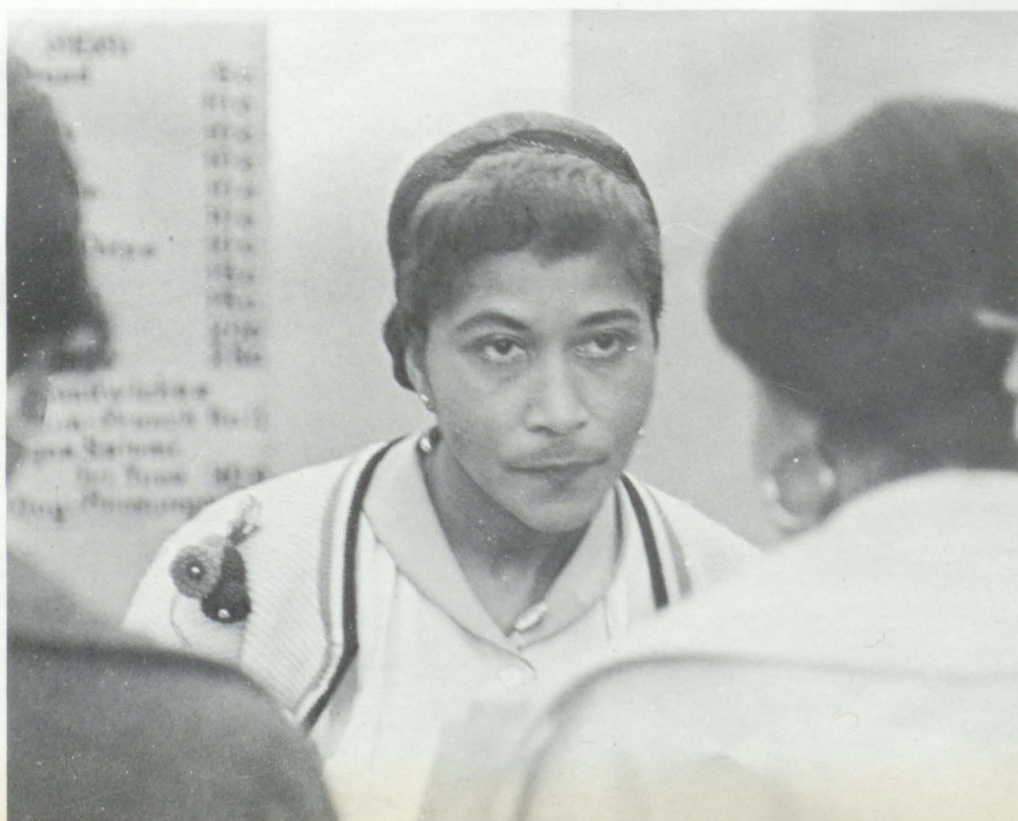

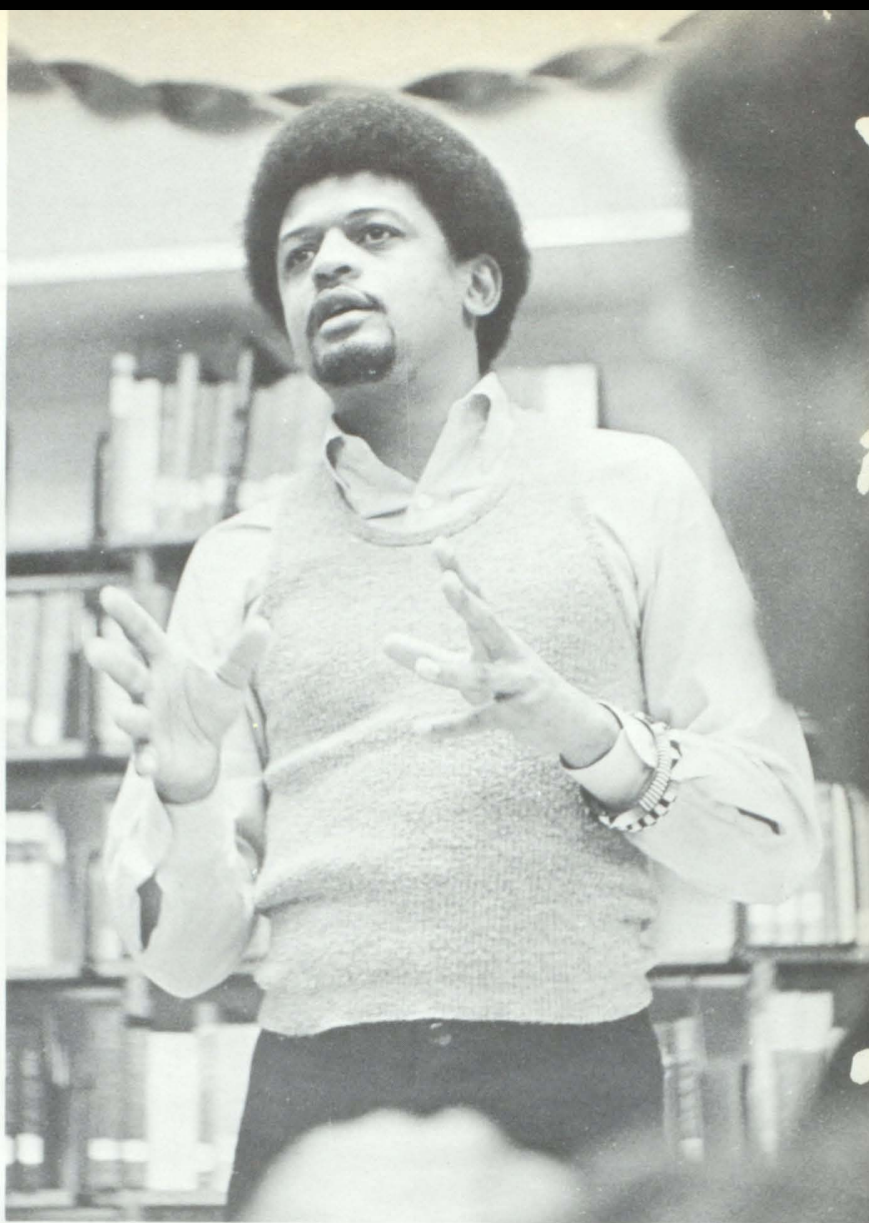

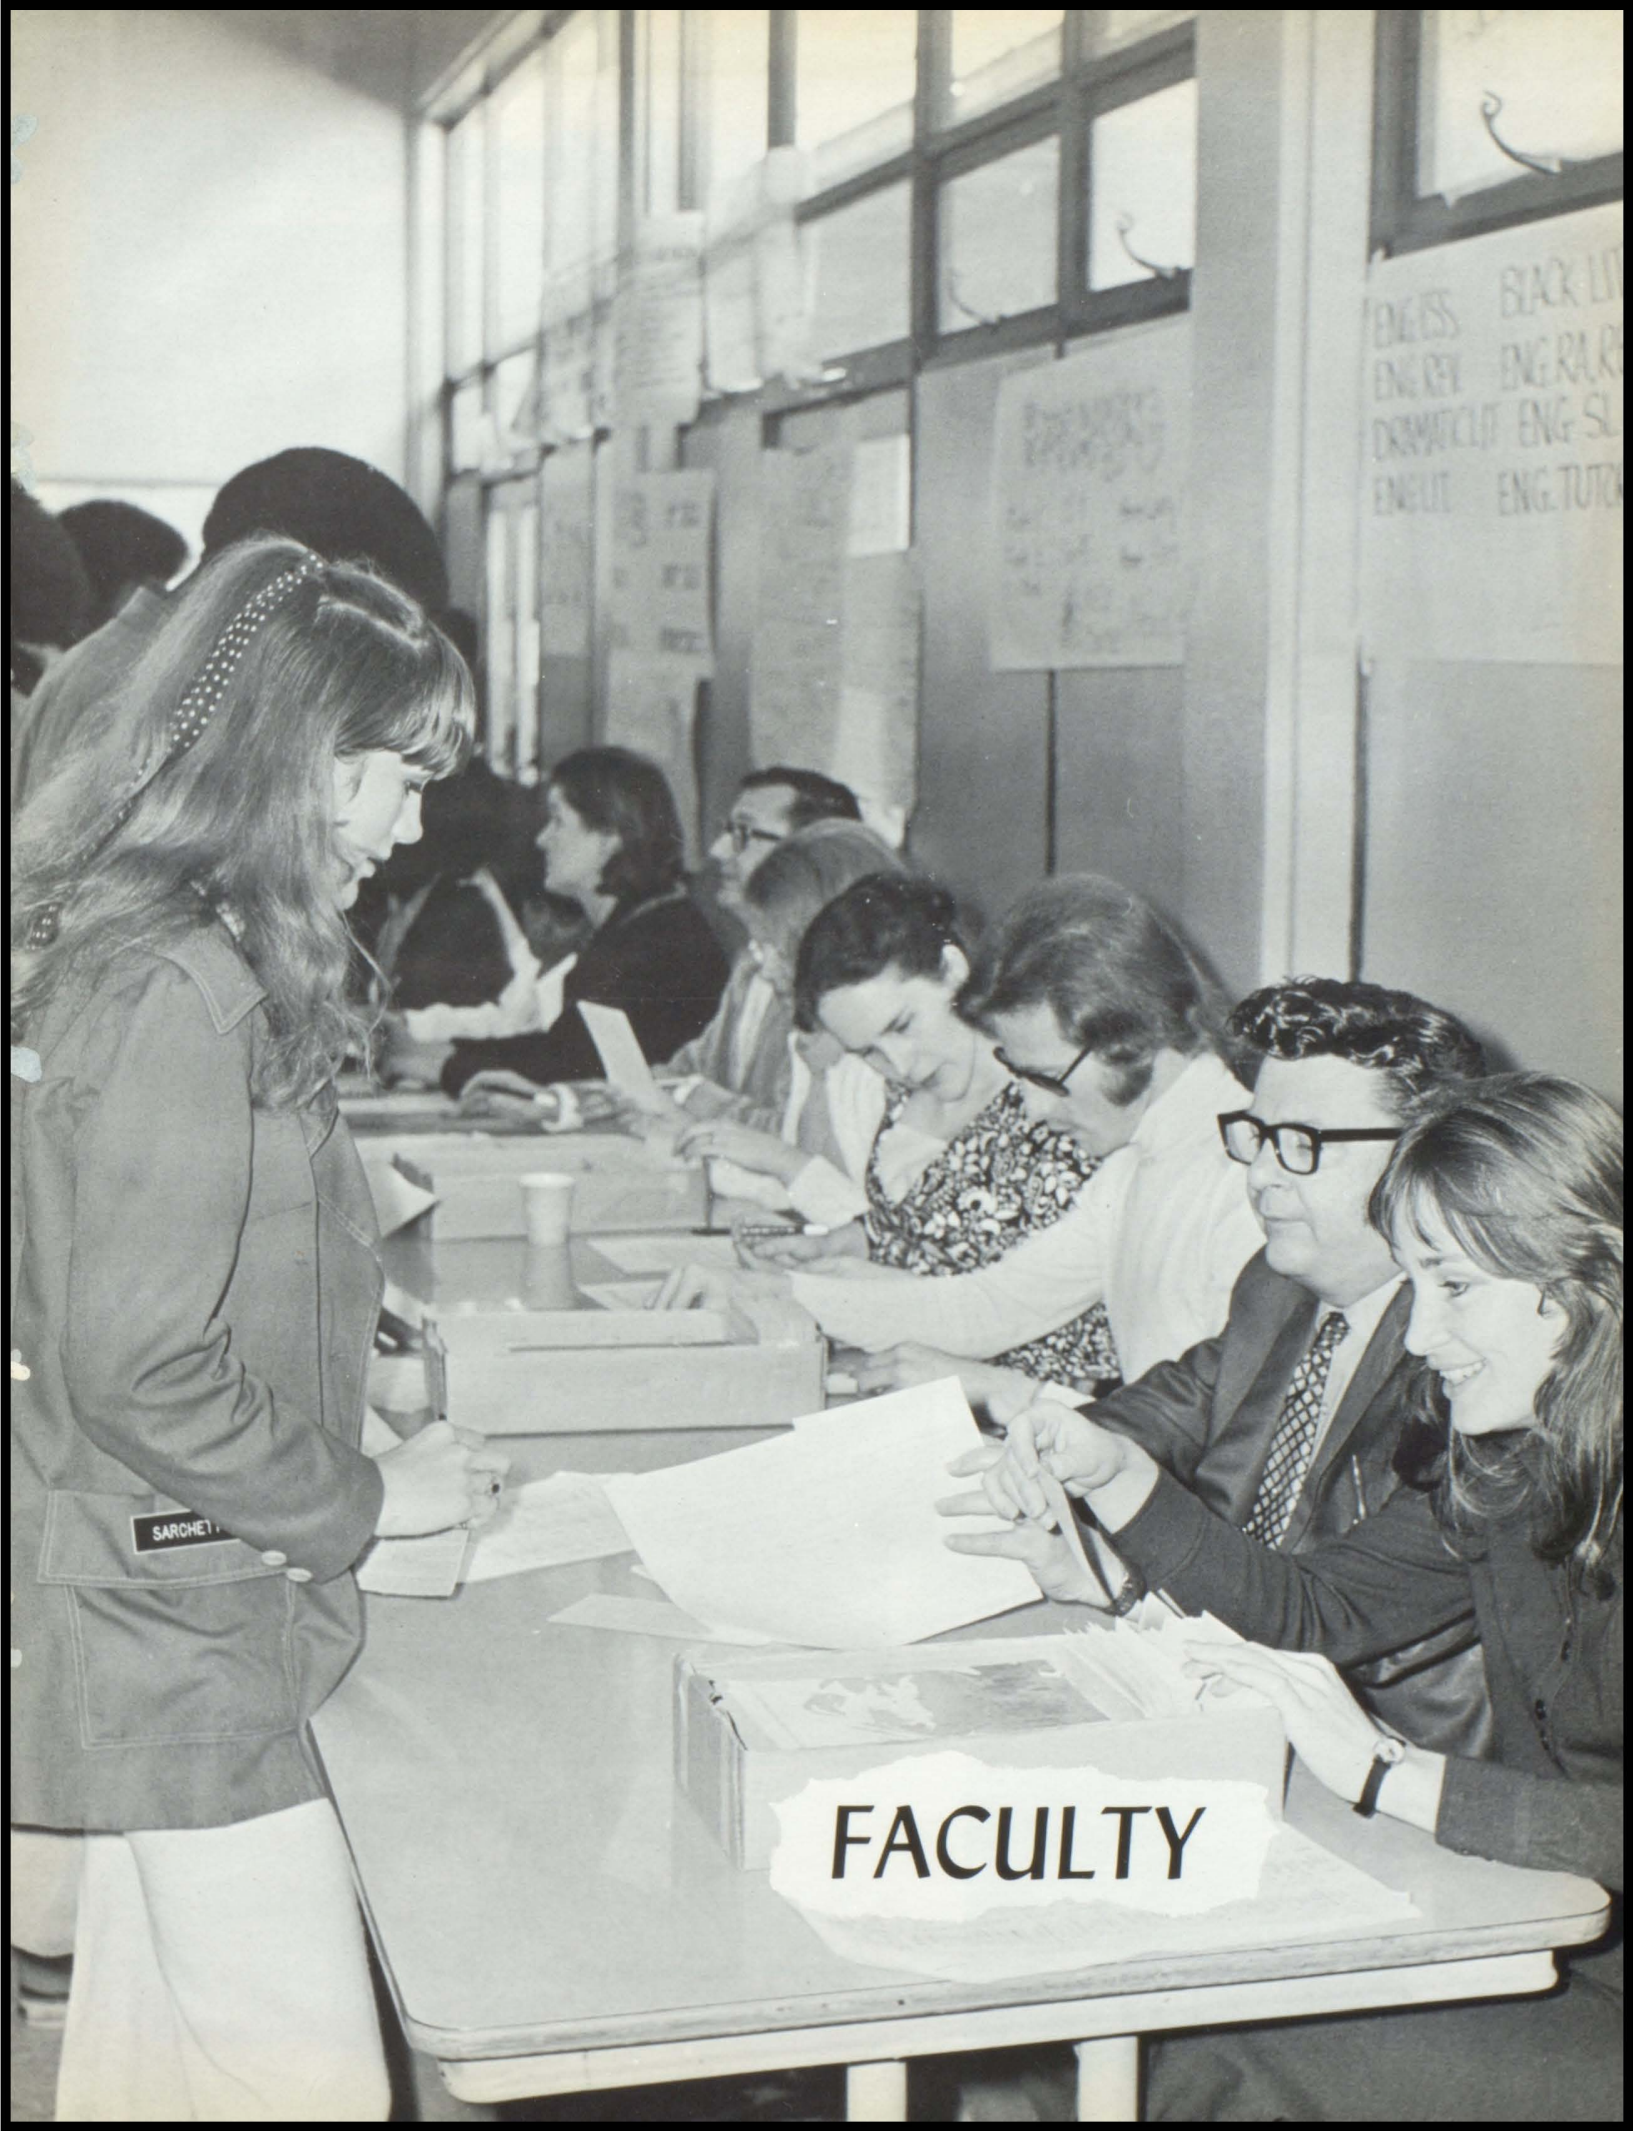

A favorite spot for many students was the school cafeteria, staffed by dedicated personnel.

Manning the school's communications center are William Robinson, Denise Wilborn, and Ora Ross (standing).

From concerned parents to the staff of the neighborhood branch libraries, the students of Wilson High had the best in community resources.

Gregory Fields, as a bandit, the lonely Opal (Rochelle), and Sonia Sierra, as another plotter on Opal's life, discuss Opal's love for her new friends.

Opal greets the officer who saves her.

'Opal' Conquers All

Two outstanding and hilarious performances of John Patrick's comedy "Everybody Loves Opal" were presented at Woodrow Wilson High Friday and Saturday nights, May 15 and 16, 1970.

The production was directed by Mr. Harry Lieberman, drama teacher, and the designer and technical director was Mrs. Billie Jo Burns.

Stage sets were the work of the stagecraft class, and make-up was done by April Nieves and Sylvia Ojeda. Senior Jane Nieves was the stage manager.

Rochelle Toninelli comes down the stairs to her birthday party. As Opal, she escapes a plan to take her life and turns the criminals into people that love her.

Gregory Fields, Sonia Sierra and Hobie Sylvester play culprits who look for Opal under the fallen ceiling. But once again Opal has escaped their plot.

Rochelle Toninelli as Opal comforts Wilbur Wong, the doctor, who has a stiff neck.

Hit Comedy

Two hilarious performances of Bel Kaufman's "Up The Down Staircase" were presented Friday and Saturday nights December 4 and 5.

The production was directed by Mr. Harry Lieberman, and the play was produced by the Advance Drama Class. Mr. Griggs Roane, Music Department chairman, conducted the orchestra during the intermission.

Stage sets were done by the stagecraft class, and make-up responsibilities were shared by many.

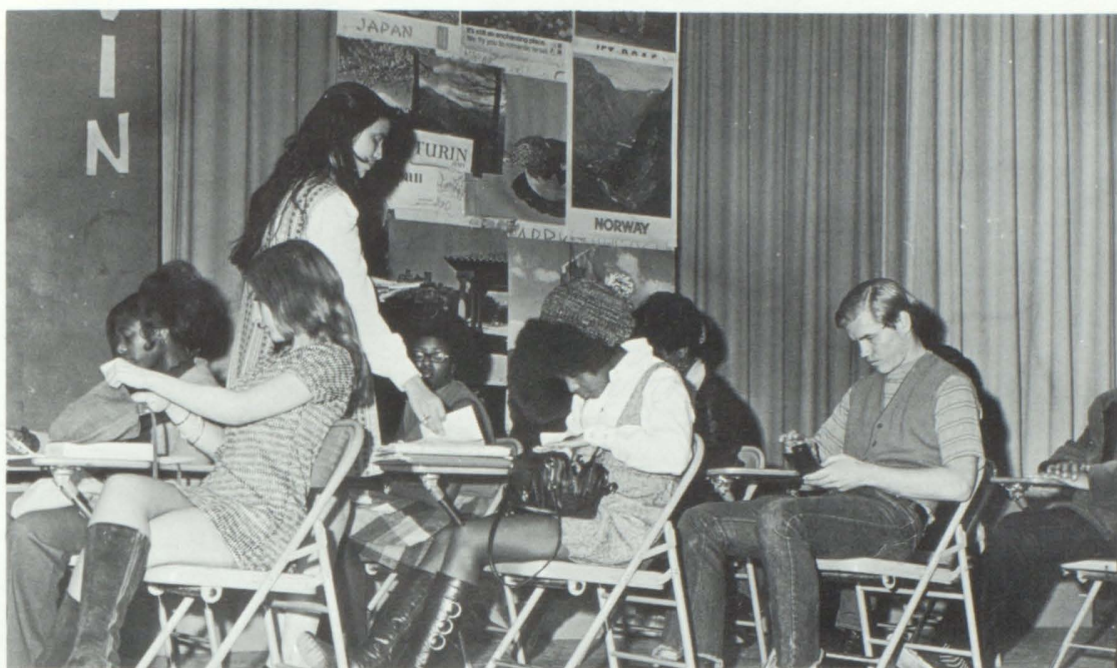

Barbara Brewster as a student in class.

Sonia Sierra as the young teacher gets vital information on the insane school procedures at Calvin Coolidge High. Faculty member Mrs. B.J. Burns plays the helpful teacher.

Students tell the teacher what they think of English as a subject. Playing students are Vivian Preston, Ed Dowd, Yvonne Crowder, Tyrone Taylor, Ida Pino, Rickey Monroe, Sherrill Boyd, Sherman Brown, Anthony Balansat, Lynn Underhill, Anthony Cosio, Willaron Butler, Rochelle Toninelli and Barbara.

Staged By Advanced Drama Class

In her role as a teacher, Sonia Sierra passes out an examination booklet to her class.

The teacher (Sonia Sierra) defends one of her rebellious students (Greg Fields) from the strong criticism of the Dean, played by Mr. Lieberman, who also directed.

ORGANIZATIONS

ROTC Units Win Several Top Honors

Woodrow Wilson High School's Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) accomplished many honors this year.

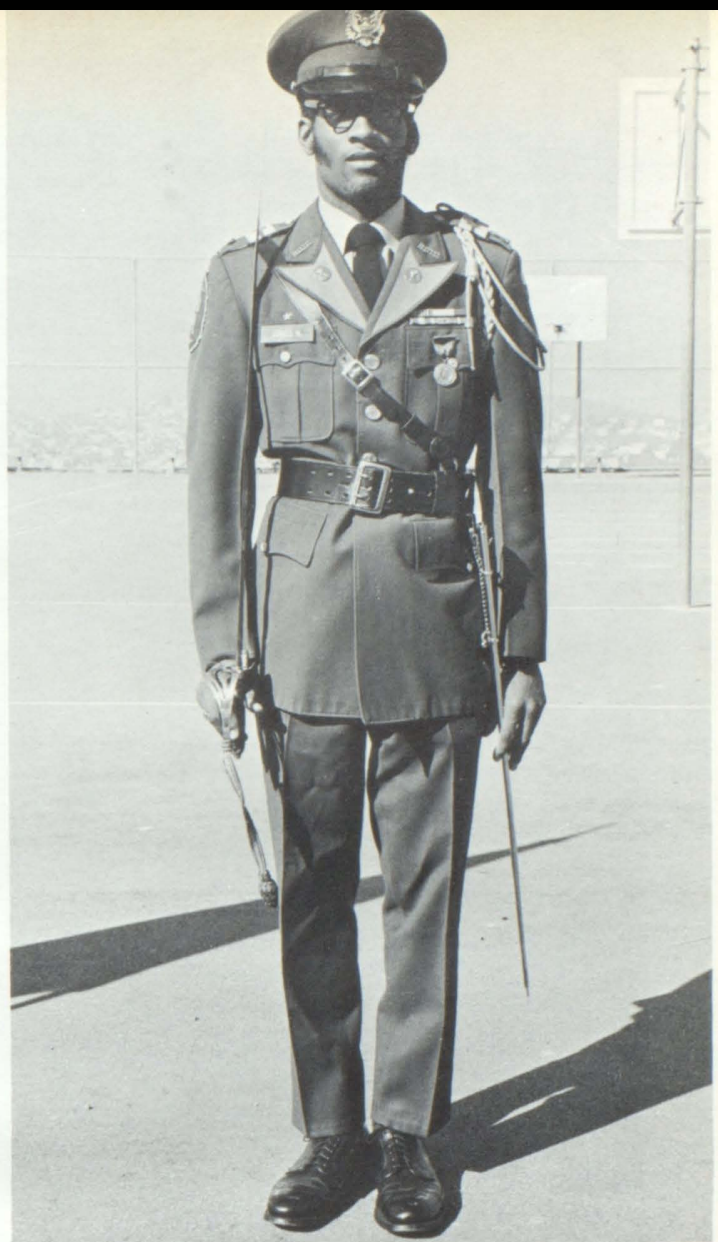

Master Sergeant Richard Ryan, ROTC senior resident Army instructor, stated that the mission of the ROTC is "to help build better citizens, better responsibility and bring out leadership traits in our students."

The various activities that the ROTC participated in during the year were Rifle Team, Drum Corps, Drill Team, Color Guard and Girls Drill Team.

The cadets displayed good talent, Capturing such honors as: second place marching unit in the Veterans Day Parade; first place battalion during the Brigade Field Trip; and second place on St. Patrick's Day in marching unit competition.

The Girls Drill Team showed they were as good as the men by taking second place in the Veterans Day Parade and second place marching unit during the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The girls then topped it all off by taking second place in the City Wide Girls Drill Team Competition.

The girls were under the direction of ROTC instructor Sergeant Stanley Potlongo.

All-City players Bruce Rhodes (with ball) and Gene Woodard (blocking) combine talents to gain yards for Wilson.

In Play-offs -- A Winning Season

Ron McGary, Mr. Fil Jularbal, head coach,
Alan Lloyd, manager.

Wilson's 1970 Varsity Football Team had its second winning season in its eight year history and earned its second play-off berth. Small in size but big in spirit, Wilson became the quickest team in the league.

Poly was Wilson's first league competition and the Warriors emerged victorious, 14-6, as Bruce Rhodes plunged over from two yards out in the first quarter, and Gene Woodard scored later on a 16 yard run.

In the second game the Washington Eagles visited Wilson stadium to be smashed by the Green Machine, 26-14. Lincoln hosted the Warriors in the third game and stung the Warriors, 32-0. This was Wilson's first loss and the first time they had been shut out during the season.

Balboa next shut out the young Wilson team, 33-0. Defending champion Lowell the socked it to Wilson in a grueling battle, 21-12, after Wilson almost pulled the upset of the season.

As the Warriors went into the sixth game of the season against Mission they couldn't afford a loss if they were to earn a play-off berth. The Warriors shut out the Bears, 12-0. Thus Wilson's last game would determine whether the team would make the play-offs. Wilson hosted Galileo on a warm Saturday morning and at first it seemed as though it would be a long day as the Lions stunned the Warriors by scoring on their first drive. But Wilson rallied to defeat the Lions, 32-6.

Wilson placed four players on the All-City roster: Jerry Garcia, Gene Woodard, Allen Giovanetti, and Greg Johnwell.

The coach's choices were: Bruce Rhodes, outstanding player; Robert Starks, outstanding lineman; Gene Woodard, outstanding back.

They Kept Wilson On The Move

Willie Davis starred on both defense and offense.

Gene Woodard was the coach's choice for Outstanding Back.

These offensive interior linemen kept the Warriors rolling: Fred Dutto, Leo Camarena, Robert Starks, Jerry Garcia, Allen Giovanetti.

Travis Combs, the coach's choice as the most underrated player, is shown being stopped after another long gainer.

Rennée Tucker takes off after receiving a Balboa punt. He went all the way.

Junior Varsity

Woodrow Wilson's Junior Varsity Football Team powered its way to its second consecutive AAA championship, extending an unspoiled record over a two-season span.

The JVs led their league in both total offense and defense, allowing few points (an average of two touchdowns) while scoring in large clusters themselves.

Outstanding players on the JV team were Carter Rankin (defensive end), Greg Dominguez (defensive halfback), Andrew Lockwood (halfback) and Byron Frank, offensive end.

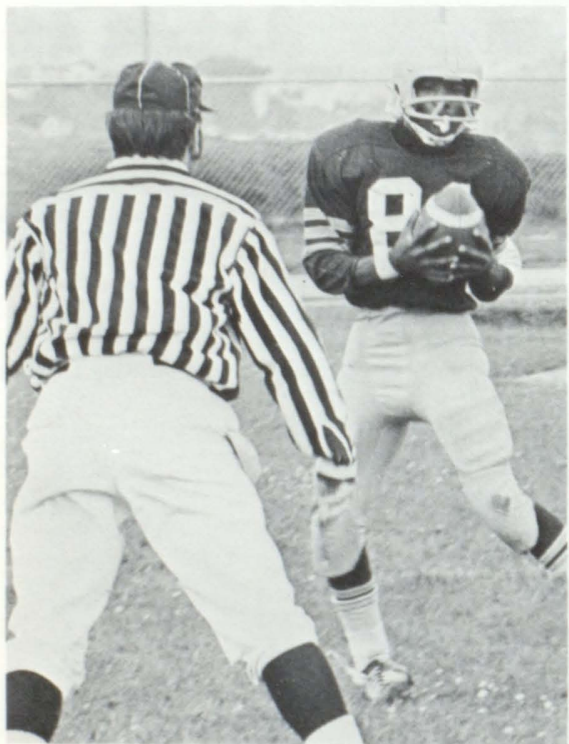

Coach Toomer, in his first year as head man, said, "It was a complete team accomplishment with all members contributing to a winning effort."

Andrew Lockwood follows blockers through the opposing linemen.

Greg Dominguez and Andrew Lockwood pull the double-reverse. Results: a long gain for Wilson.

Gregory Frank receives a touchdown pass. The referee is right there to see it.

Foalemutu Folaouo leads the way for Leonard Walker.

Goes Undefeated To Championship

Star Defensive end Carter Rankin breaks through and closes in on the opposing quarterback.

Sophomores Take Football Title,

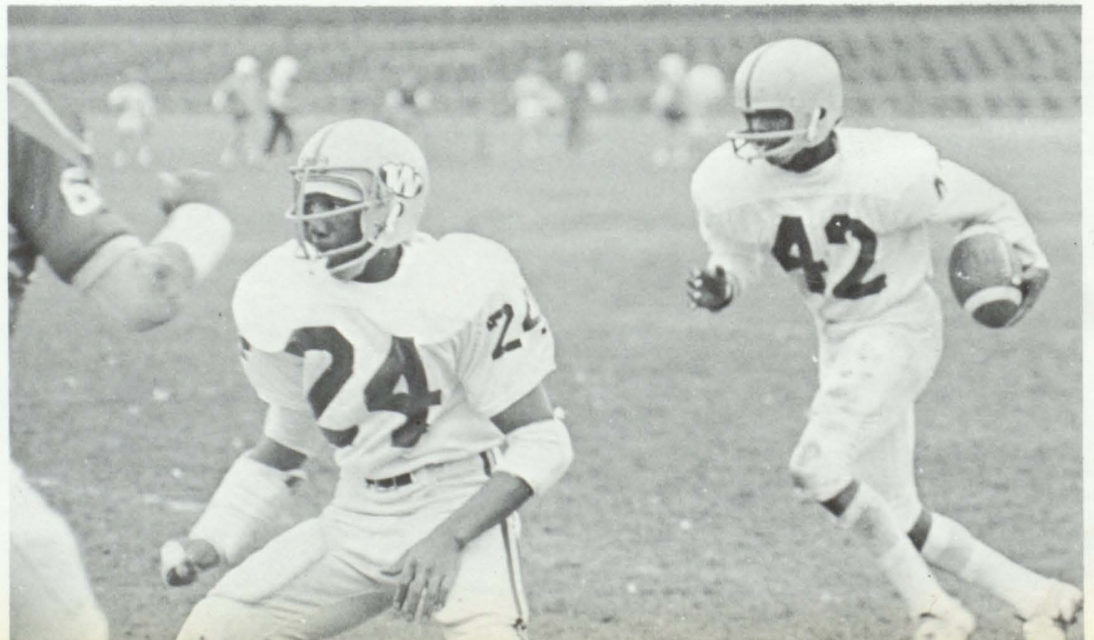

1970 Sophomore Football Team

Marcel Lewis carries the pigskin as Harvey Criswell prepares to clear the way.

Have Perfect Season Record

Woodrow Wilson's Sophomore Football Team rolled to its second consecutive AAA championship as this year's team went undefeated, winning most of its games by lopsided margins.

The Sophomores led their league in both total offense and defense, only allowing the opposition an average of 12 points per game.

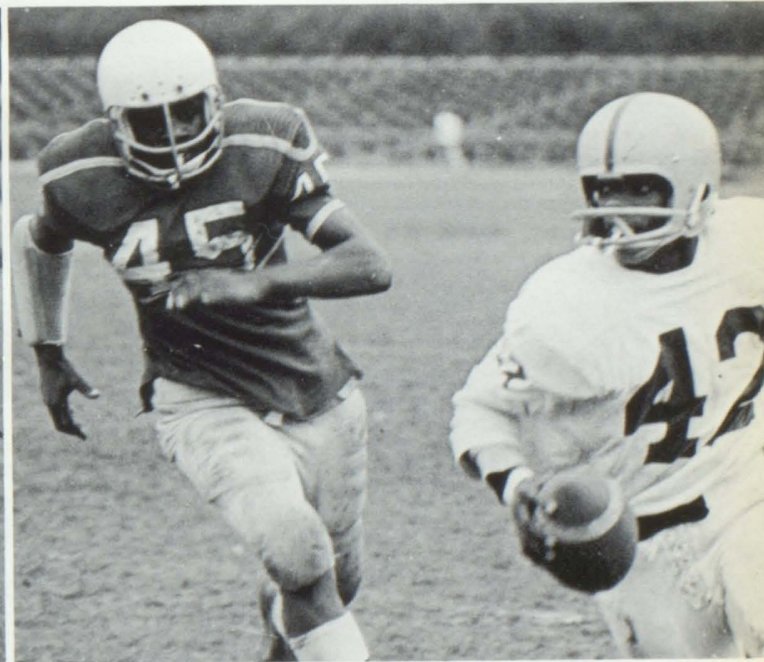

Outstanding players on the team were: Marcel Lewis (running back, flanker), Alvin Katley (running back) and Jeff Moreno, quarterback.

Coach Banks said he expects these three players to be good varsity men next season, but he reminded them: "Be a football player second and a student first."

The Sophomores' defensive muscle is demonstrated by Greg Maxwell (no. 51), Marcel Lewis (no. 42), Alvin Katley (no. 26), and James Reed (no. 82).

Alvin Katley begins to make his move towards the opponent's goal and Greg Maxwell carries out a blocking assignment.

Marcel Lewis, playing a brilliant game at quarterback, eludes a Poly tackler.

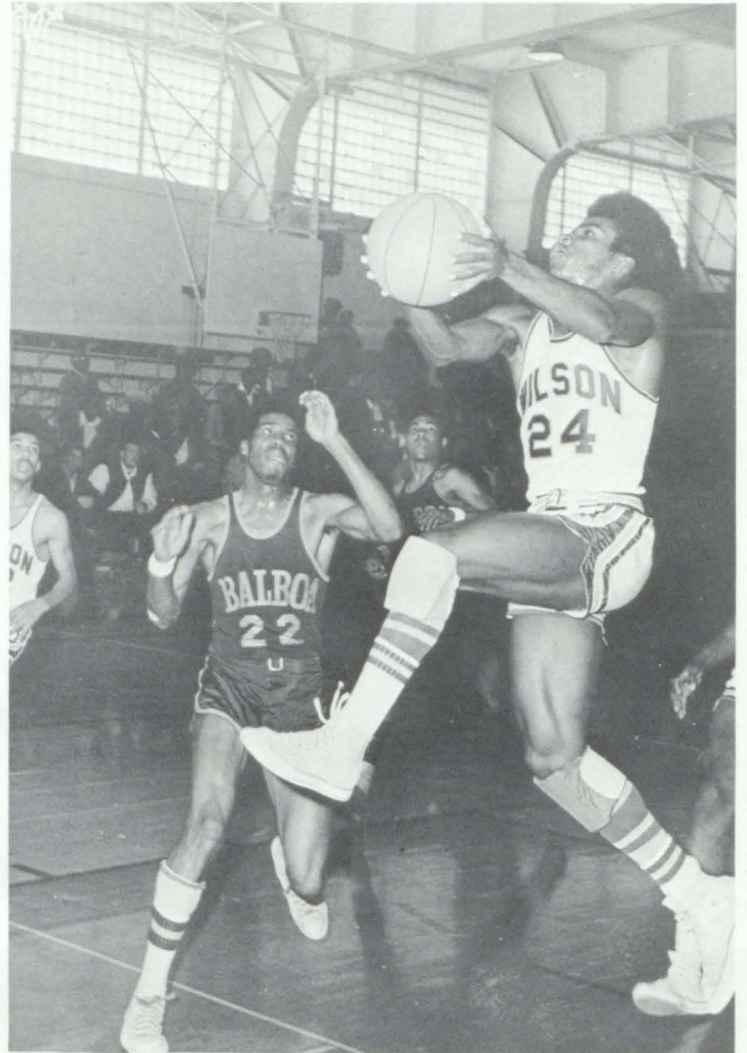

Varsity Cagers Are Contenders Again

Wilson's varsity cagers continued to be a top contender for the AAA championship, making the play-offs for the eighth straight year, but for the first time in four years the Warriors did not play in the championship game.

In the play-offs Wilson played the Poly Parrots. Though the Warriors played tough and led through most of the game, the outcome was disastrous, with the final score, 50-47.

Members of Wilson's varsity squad were Bobby Vercher, Bobby Starks, Greg Johnwell, Julius Bolds, Mark Murphy, Larry Jones, Bobby Pruitt (first half season), Bobby Blakely, Artie Bridgman, Grailen Stitt, Ronald Joseph (first half season), James Wesley (first half season), and Kenneth Mitchell.

Making All-City were Bobby Blakely (second team), who also led the league in rebounds, and Greg Johnwell (honorable mention).

Ron Joseph begins leap towards goal for a layup.

Sophomores Lead

Prospects for a successful track season seemed to hinge on the wealth of Sophomore talent Coach Banks has assembled on his 62-man squad.

The first year coach said, "Over half of the members are Sophomores, so I look upon this first season as somewhat of a building season for the members of the team as well as myself."

To go with Mr. Banks' sophomore talent, Wilson has such outstanding veterans returning as Ken Simon (120 low hurdle city record holder), Derek Toliver (long jump), Ken Nakamura (120/880 city record holder), Larry Jones (880 varsity) and high jumper James Wesley.

An example of the Soph talent is Ron Whitaker, who did a 9.7 100 yard dash in the Serramonte. Then Alvin Katelly did a 10.2 in the 100 yard dash. In the low hurdles, Duane Walker turned in a 14.6 and Michael Warren did a 14.8. In the high jumping were Julius Bolds at 5 feet and Randy Turner at 5-foot-10.

As the season started Mr. Banks felt that the toughest competition would come from Balboa, Lincoln and Poly, Summing it all up Coach Banks said, "From the sophomores we expect big things, but from the varsity, we'll just have to wait and see."

Robert Byrd gets a good start in meet against Serramonte.

Of Wilson's Varsity

Wilson's Varsity Baseball Team was well on its way to its first championship at the midway point.

In the opener Lowell beat Wilson, 7-6, although Artie Bridgeman, Mike Cardiel and Victor Lopes gave outstanding performances.

The golden arm of senior Bobby Starks took over in the second game, also against Lowell, as the lefty threw a no-hitter and the team contributed eleven runs.

Bobby returned to the mound in the third game to face the defending champions, Lincoln, and he rose to the occasion by fashioning a five-hitter to prevail, 10-2.

The Warriors suffered their second one-run defeat of the season in the fourth game when Mission sneaked past them, 5-4.

But Bobby Starks came back in the fifth game to keep his undefeated record in tact with another five-hitter. Bobby also blasted a grand slam and batted in six runs. Other hitting stars of the game were teammates Kerry Thomas, who hit a homerun, Kenny Hoffman, Gene Woodard and Artie Bridgeman. The Warriors won, beating Mission, 15-0.

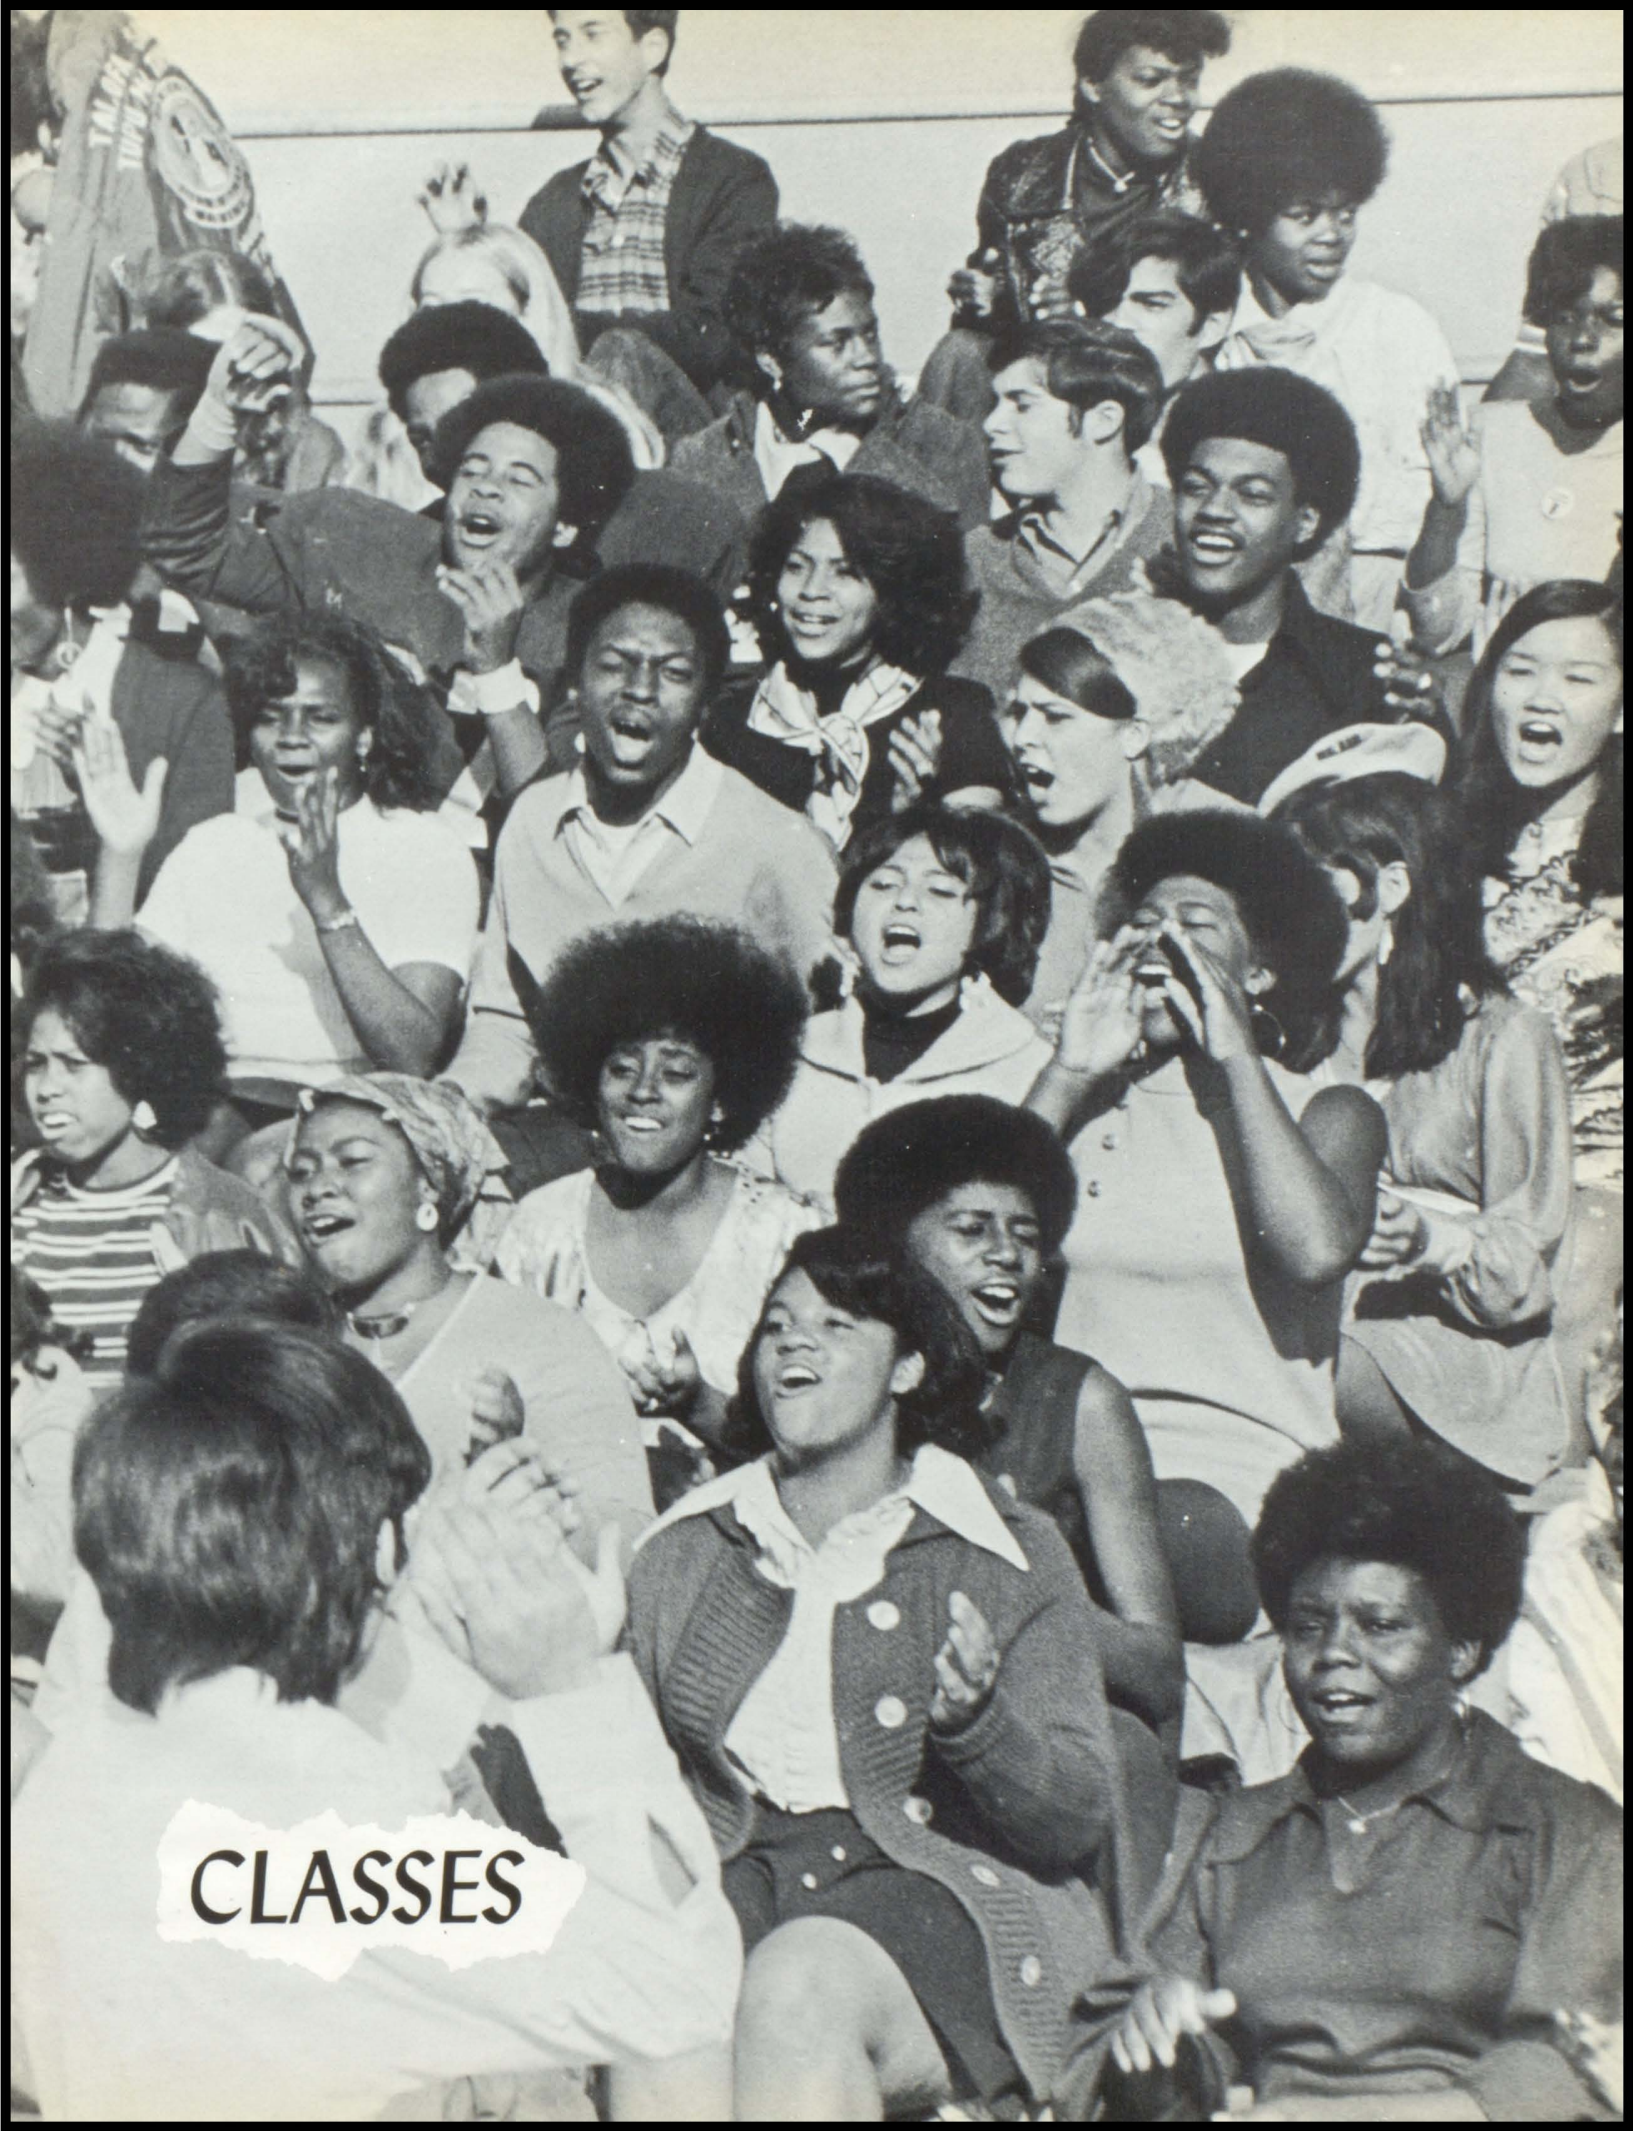

Other members of the team, coached by Mr. Ferree, are Arthur Dickson, Mike Brusco, Jerry Benton, Mark Chew, Ronnie Haynes, Jerry White, and Pete Negrone, asst. coach.

Low Seniors demonstrate their spirit in pre-game exchange rally with Washington High.

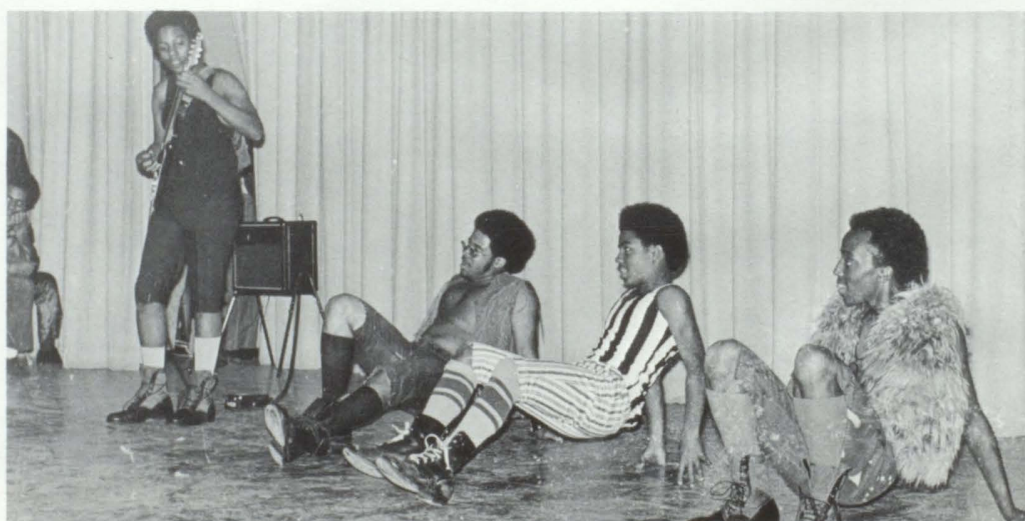

The ludicrous Lucifer (Lemuel Badie) escorts Sister Dillpickle (Dexter Sullivan) to that soulful place below.

Rev. Eli (Roland Terry) socks out his soulful sermon in the church scene.

Roland Terry, George Johnson, Ronnie Donaldson and Lemuel Badie do a soul routine as the Funky "5". Not shown is Prezell Taylor.

Soulful Humor In 'Senior Jinx'

The annual "Senior Jinx" on Jan. 22 was one of the most hilarious, soulful productions ever seen at Wilson.

Roland Terry, Elisecia Watkins, Lemuel Badie, George Johnson and Ronnie Donaldson gave outstanding performances.

The church scene starred Roland Terry as an unscrupulous clergyman and Lemuel Badie as a ludicrous Lucifer. The soulful sounds of Clara Johnson and George Johnson were featured, as Clara sang "Doctor Feelgood" and George rendered "Pimp'n George."

The high point of the show was the guest appearance of the "Funky 5" who did a dynamic routine. The sexy part of the show centered around the antics of Dexter Sullivan and Ronald DeRosans in which Ronald played a frustrated housewife and Dexter portrayed Sister Dillpickle and sang "Old Man River."

The righteous Mothers of Cold Duck Baptist Church are played by Wanda Stewart, Vanessa Johnson, Cynthia Armstrong, Arnetta Crumb and Arleatha Brandon.

Carma Word and Elisecia Watkins prepare Dexter Sullivan for his roll as Sister Dillpickle.

Tragedy Mars Senior Year

Lizette Buhagiar

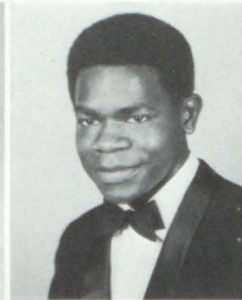

"I'll lend you for a little time a child of Mine," He said,
 "For you to love the while he lives, and mourn for while he's dead.
 It may be six or seven years or twenty-two or three,
 But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for Me?
 He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
 and should his stay be brief,
 You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief,
 I cannot promise he will stay, since all
 from earth return,
 But there are lessons taught down there
 I want this child to learn.
 I've looked this wide world over in my search for teachers true,
 And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you.
 Now will you give him all your love,
 nor think the labor vain,
 Nor hate Me when I come to call to take him back again?"
 I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear
 Lord, Thy will be done,
 For all the joy Thy child shall bring,
 the risk of grief we'll run.
 We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
 And for the happiness we've known,
 forever grateful stay,
 But should the angels call for him much sooner than we've planned.
 We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand."
