Natural Togetherness

Characterized

The School Year — '72-'73

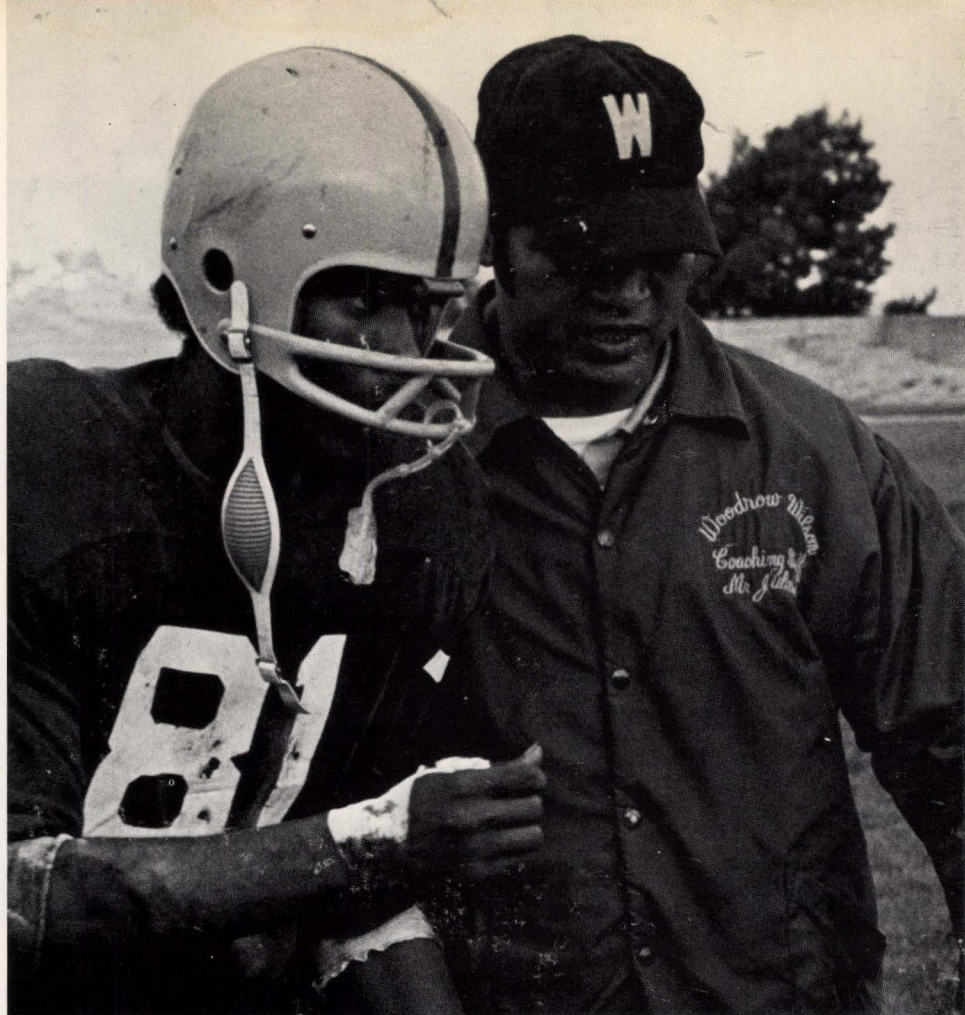

The idea of natural togetherness best expresses the spirit of Woodrow Wilson High School for 1972-73.

The progress made during '71-'72 to turn this school around continued.

The class centers functioned as a unifying instrument for all classes — sophomore, junior and senior and natural togetherness was made a reality for each individual. Students continued to build pride in themselves and in their school.

The natural togetherness spirit was effective because it was an ideal that could be shared by students of all races. Working together, sharing together, building together became a reality for all.

Second Win In Song-Yell For '73 Class

The Class of 1973 swept to its second consecutive victory in the annual Song and Yell Contest on Friday, Oct. 13, 1972. The class had won the previous year as Juniors.

The Seniors were led by Ric Tolero, Stephanie Hayes and Betty Washington. Each class — Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors — went through the three yells in the competition held in the auditorium because of inclement weather. First was the Spell-Out, followed by the Go-Fight-Yell and last, the Original Yell. Each of the yells were well executed by the three classes, which made the competition close. The Sophomores gave an especially good showing.

The highlight of the contest came when Mr. Fourie announced that the judges had selected the poised and spirited Seniors as the winners and Daisy Avery accepted the trophy for the Champions. The Class of 1973 again was Number One.

ROTC Continued Training Young Men and Women

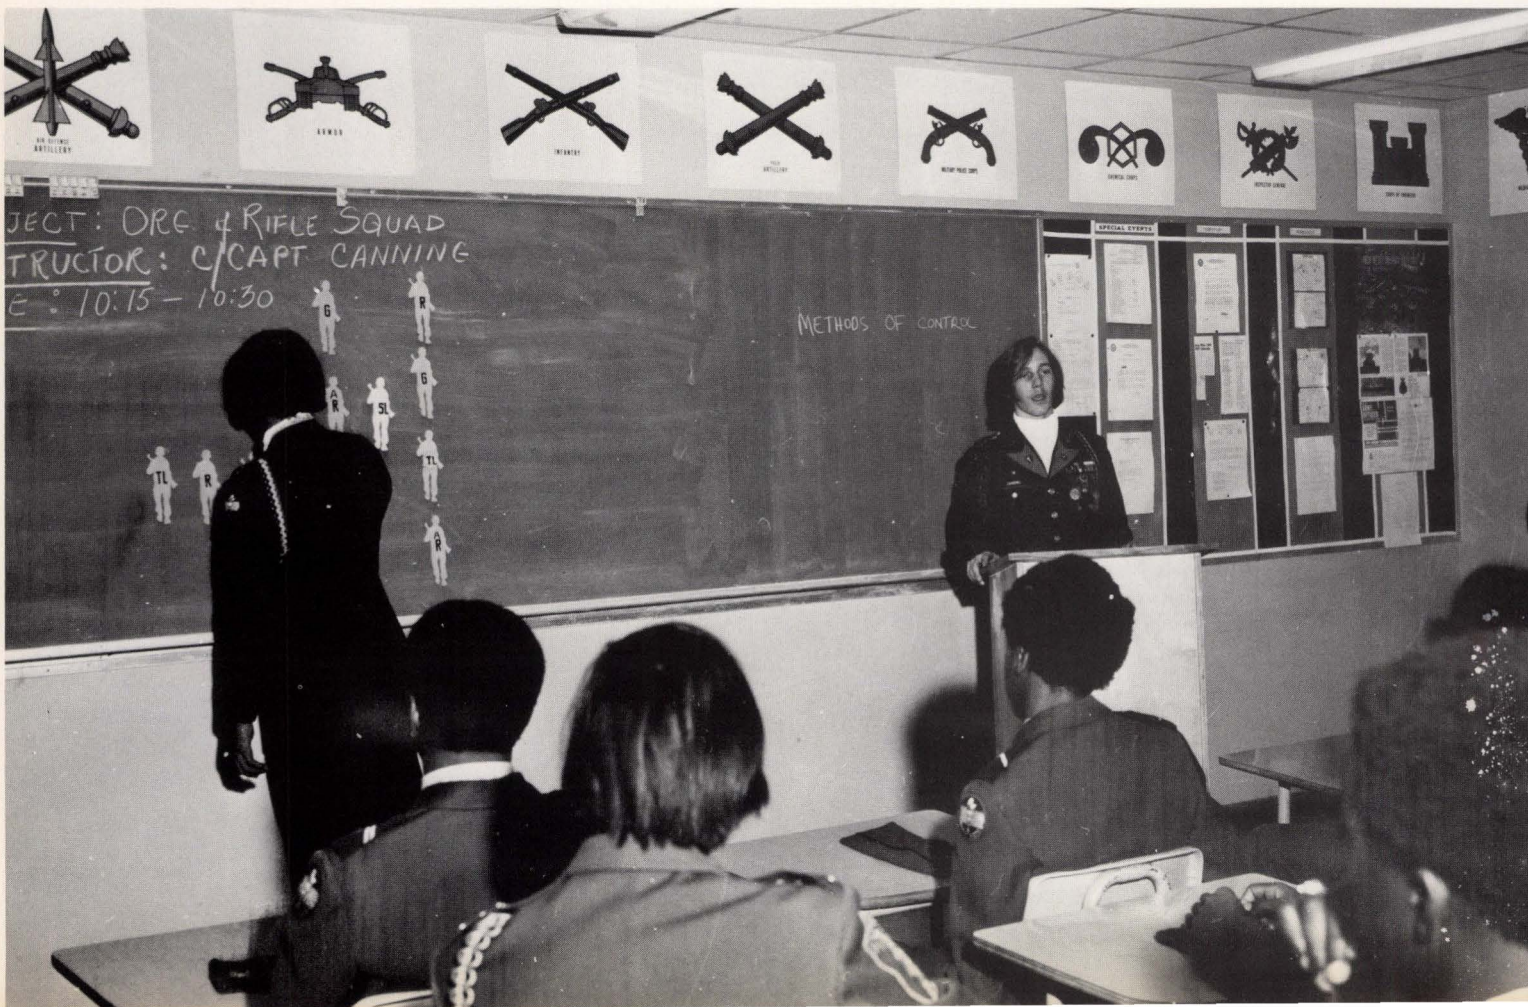

Woodrow Wilson High School's Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) accomplished many honors this year, the most important was achieving "Honor School." The second most important was taking overall Second Place in the City Wide 91st Division Drill Competition.

Master Sergeant Richard Ryan, ROTC senior resident Army instructor, stated that "the mission of the ROTC is to help build better citizens, more confidence, and bring out leadership abilities in its students."

The various activities the ROTC competed in during the year were: Drill teams, Color Guards, Drum Corps and Girls Drill Team.

The Cadets displayed excellent talent capturing such honors as: 1st Place Drum Corps in Veterans Day Parade.

The Girls Drill Team, under the direction of Sgt. Stanley Potlongo, showed they were dedicated in taking all City 1st Place. They performed at three junior high schools: Portola, Pelton and Visitation Valley and did an outstanding job at the half time during the T.O.C. Next year ROTC for girls will be offered as a regular course for girls at Wilson.

Gospel Choir

Gospel Concert Was a Night To Remember

The Gospel Concert October 27, was a night to be remembered. With Mrs. Miles as mistress of ceremonies the show went on it's way as Mr. Montgomery directed the Wilson Choir in a soulful medley of songs. Soloists Vicki Solls, Conzy Taylor and Anita Richardson captured the audience with their soothing voices as pianist Sam Johnson backed them up. The Gospel Concert was also graced by the presence of the famous gospel singer and leader Edwin Hawkins.

Also participating in the concert was the Polytechnic High School Choir, which later combined with the Wilson Choir in rendering the last song of the evening. It was a very powerful ending for what was a very good show.

KEST Radio Visited by Wilson Students

Woodrow Wilson High again scored another first by being on the radio station KEST October 26, 1972. Seniors Janet "Snookie" Meadors, Artie Bridgman, Patsy Anderson, Roxanne Moody, and Victor Adra aired an impressive show, narrated by Mr. Fourie.

The program consisted of answering questions about the school. The school's spirited activities program was described.

After the show, many phone calls complimenting the show were received at the station. As a result Woodrow Wilson was invited back to participate in another show.

International Dancers Thrill Big Audience

During a very chilly evening last December 1, the GAA International Night was held at Woodrow Wilson in the cafeteria. Under the direction of Miss Whitehead, Miss Young and Mrs. Quanain the young ladies of the GAA had a food sale of foreign delicacies. However, the dance that followed turned out to be the high point of the evening.

Narrated by Mrs. Quanain, the young ladies performed dances from various cultures, such as: African, Tahitian and English. Even the "Goodfoot" was performed. All the young ladies performed with grace as the audience watched in delight. Though it was a very cold evening it also turned out to be a special evening for all those involved.

Determination, Talent Turned Season Around

It would have been absurd to predict in September that Wilson's varsity football team would play for the City Championship in November.

The Warriors opened their regular season in September with a heartbreaking 8-0 loss to Lowell's Indians. In an attempt to rebuild morale, defensive coach Don Toomer gave the team a pep talk following the game. He concluded by saying, "Men, we will see them again."

Wilson rebounded with a 21-20 win over Washington. But then came the disappointing and humiliating loss to the Mission Bears, 26-0.

Still the Warriors came back with consecutive victories, blowing past Lincoln, 22-16, and outlasting stubborn Galileo, 6-0, scoring with 1:17 remaining in the game.

The Warriors could have cinched a play-off berth by whipping Balboa, but the Warriors got spanked, 21-20, and had to wait for Mission's romp over Galileo to get into the play-offs with a 3-3 record.

Again the Warriors came back in the play-off game to rock the once-beaten Bears, 6-2.

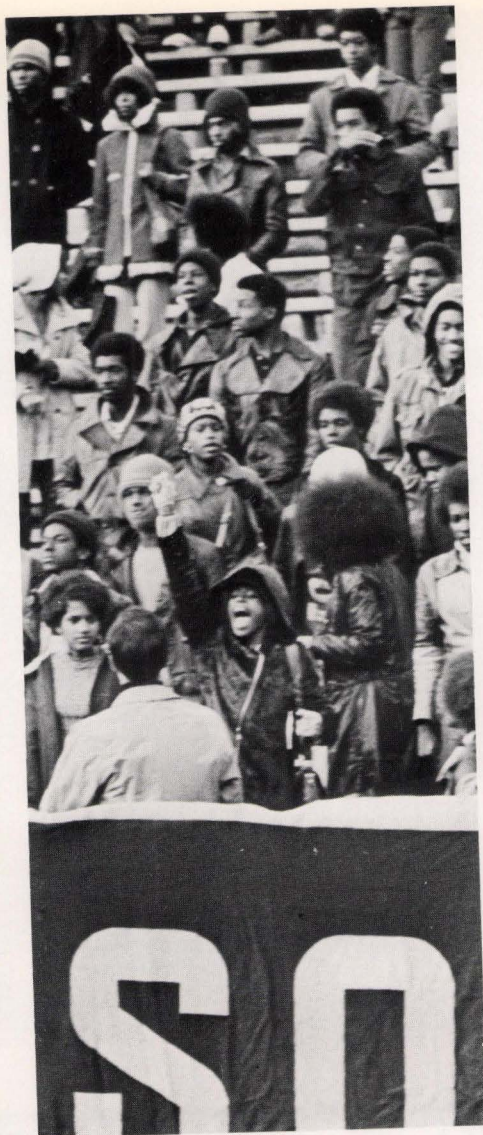

It was a determined team.

(Above) Loyal Warrior fans Valerie Scott, Annette Munson, and Louise Avery sat through intermittent hail and rain to cheer on to victory the play-off.

Play-Off Win on Brilliant Play In the Mud

Defense was the name of the game November 16 as the Wilson Warriors edged the Mission Bears, 6-2, in muddy Kezar stadium. The upset victory earned Wilson the right to battle Lowell for the City Championship in the annual Turkey Day classic.

Going into the play-off game the Warriors, with a 3-3 record, weren't given much of a chance against the Bears, with their 6-1 record. Also, the Bears had shut out the Warriors, 26-0, in their regular season encounter.

The only Mission score came on a blocked punt midway in the first quarter.

Early in the second period, the fired up Bears drove 63 yards and had a first down on the Wilson 11 yard line. It was fourth down and goal (1 yard) when Michael Booker stopped the Bear ball carrier on the 2 yard line and the Warriors took over again.

The Warriors scored the winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter, but had to stop two deep drives by Mission to protect victory.

Warriors Sweep To Round Robin Cage Title

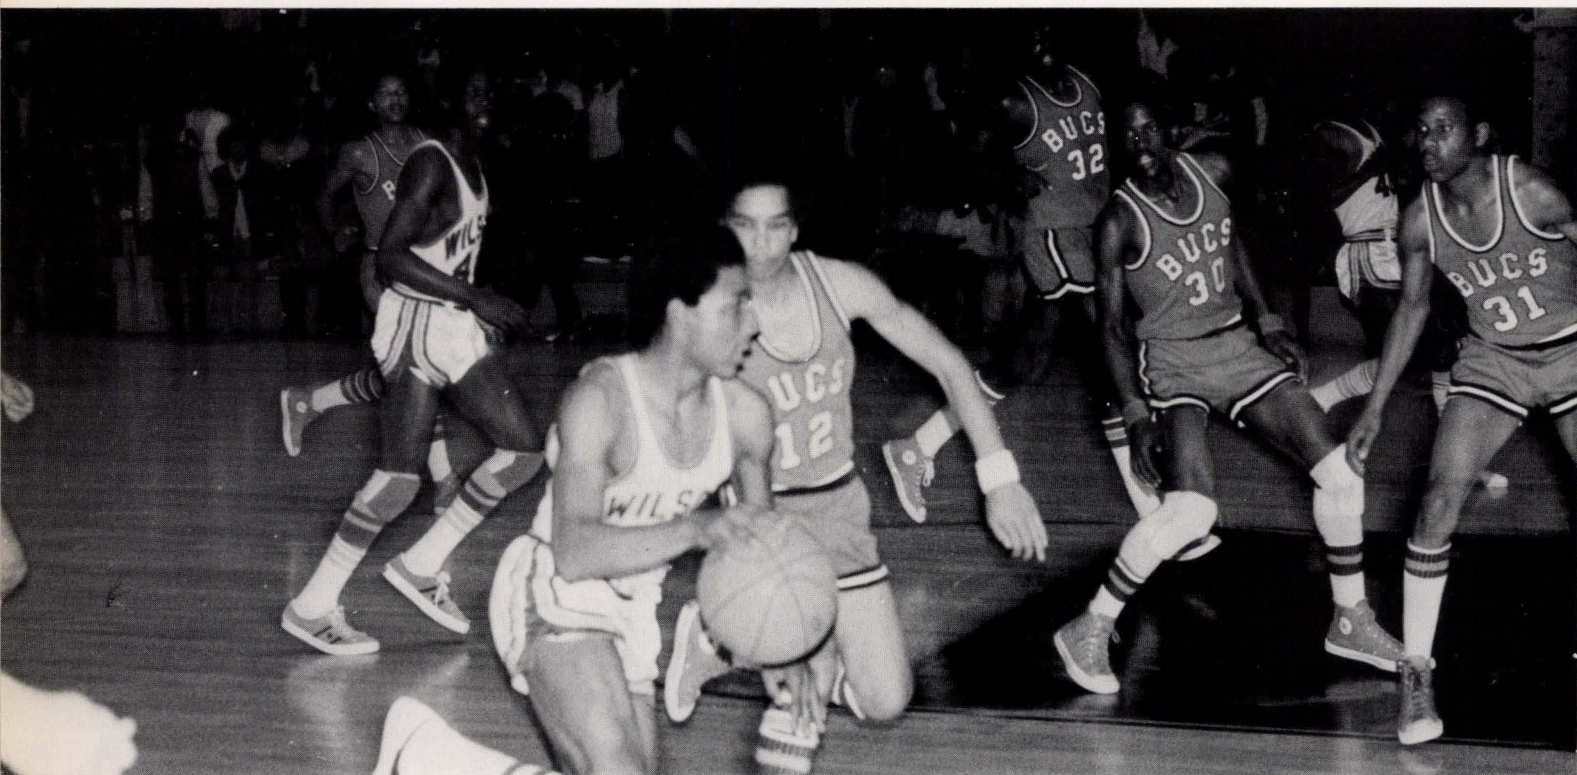

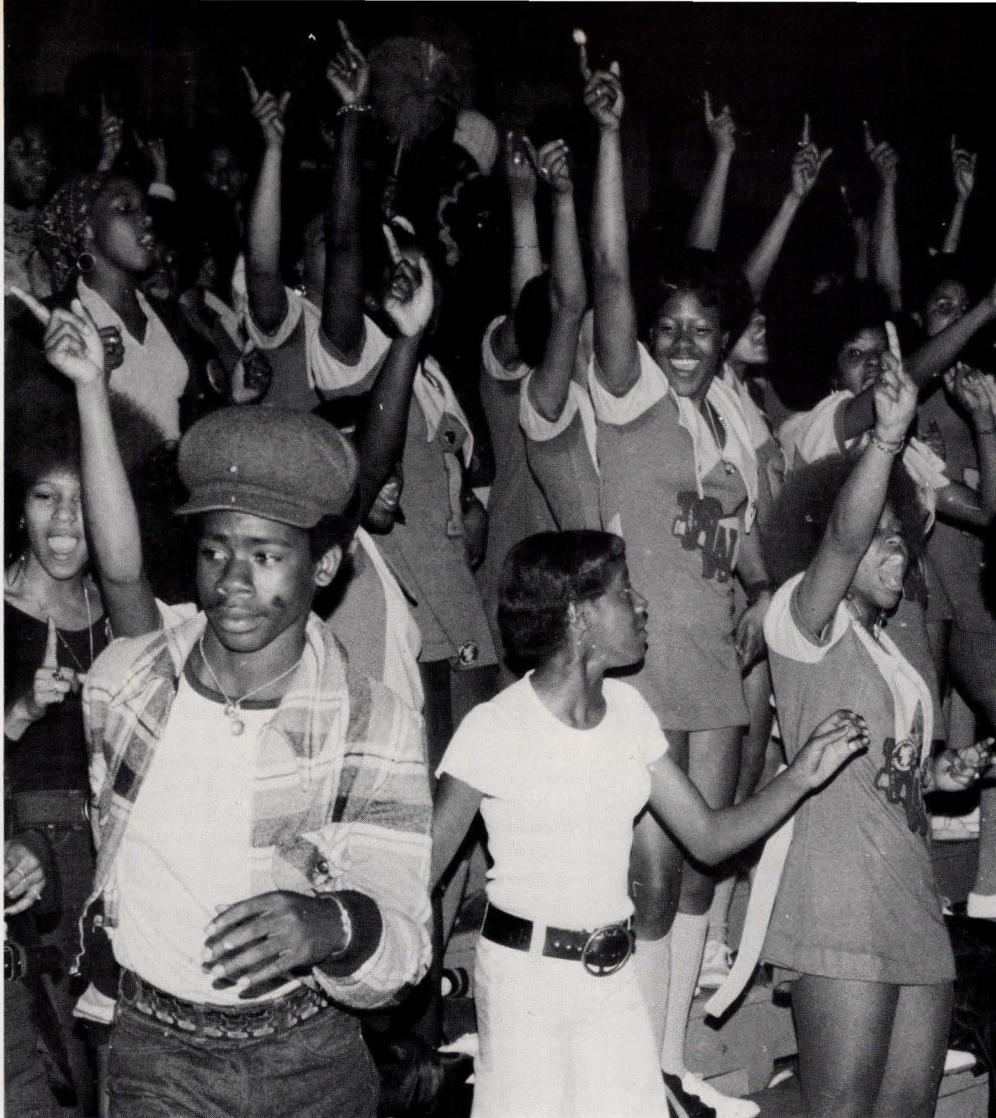

The Warriors won the round-robin AAA Championship in a walk, sweeping to 13 victories against three defeats — one defeat coming after the Warriors had cinched the title with two weeks to play.

Freshman coach Don Toomer used a two-platoon system. Coach Toomer said, "Our strong point is that any man on our team can play any of the positions at any time, and what the club may lack in height it makes up for it in quickness."

That was the story of the 1973 Warriors.

Warriors Regained Eyes to Take Play-Off Crown

As Round-Robin champs, Wilson had to be whipped twice in the play-offs to be eliminated. They lost to a hot Mission, 69-59, and then had to face Balboa in a showdown game for the championship and the right to represent San Francisco in the T.O.C.

The Buccaneers stayed close to the Warriors for a while and even led, the Warriors got their eyes back late in the game and pulled away to a 10-point comeback victory.

Thrillin' Play Marked Warriors Third T.O.C. Visit

The talented Wilson Warrior Varsity basketball team of '73 netted their way to the third A.A.A. Championship since the schools history. With the tallest man at 6'4", coach Don Toomer went in the season of play with the theory of playing a running type of ball game. Although they had a height disadvantage, the Warriors still had a lot going for them, speed, good shooter, and tough defense. These were the three parts to the Warriors triangle of success. The speed controller of the squad was guard Dwayne Harden, a 5'9" Warrior player who operated the offense on top, with the side aid of sharp shooting Julius Bolds, Larry Neal and Tony Goodspeed. Whenever these men start to slip, there were always back ups like, Junior Orlando Williams, David Johnwell, Curtis Reed, Arthur Dickson and Artie Bridgman.

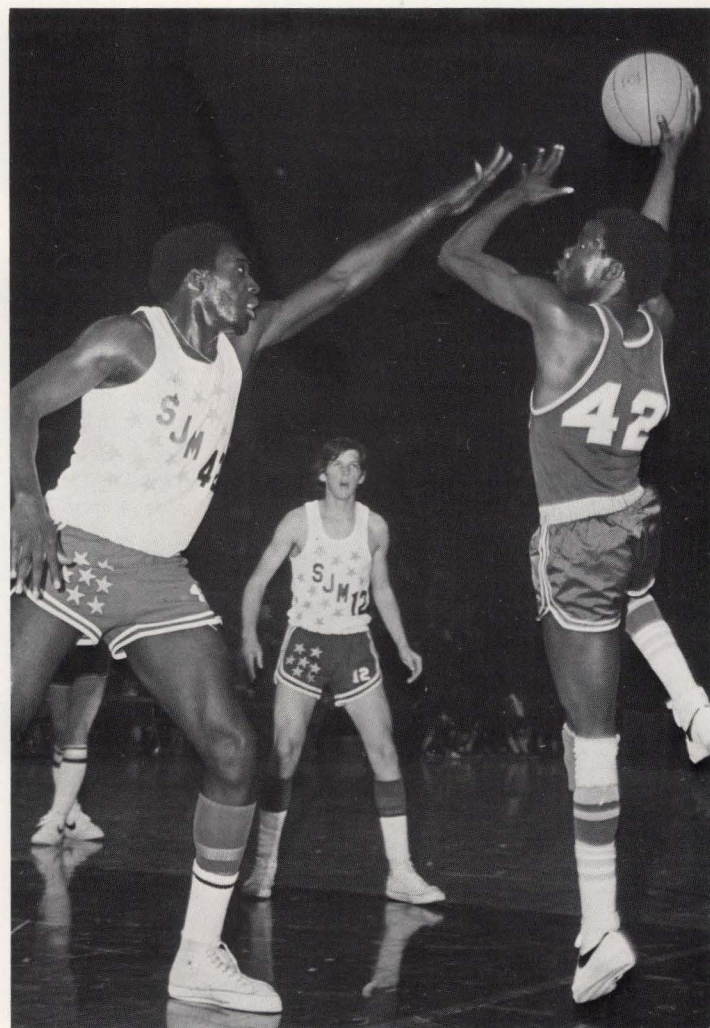

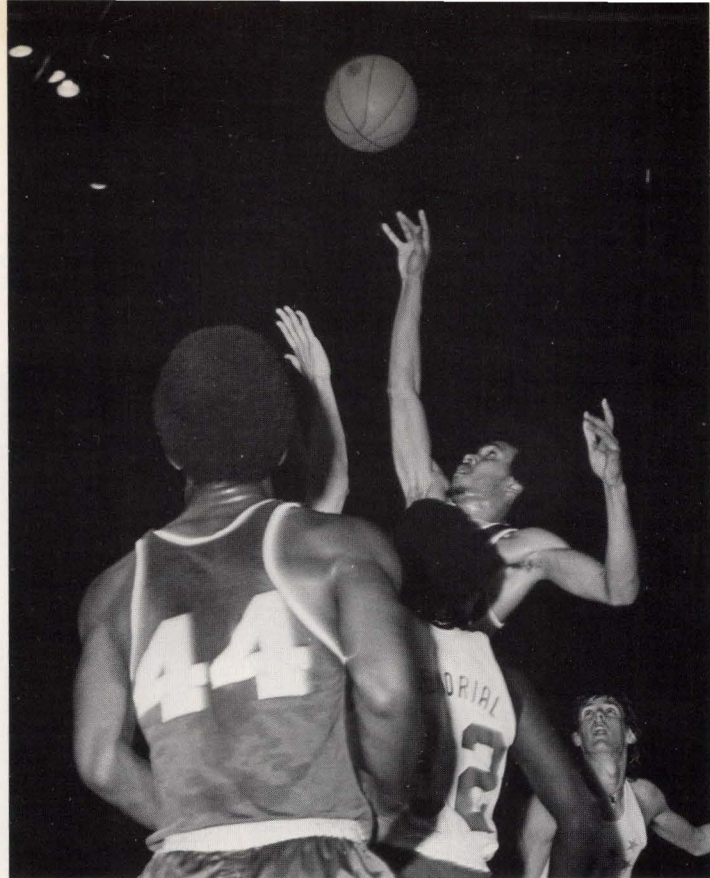

At the Tournament of Champions these men's triangle of success was again put to the test. Unlike most teams, the Warriors didn't have a first string or star player. The team of '73 consisted of twelve men, and at each game it was twelve men against five. Everyone was a starter to Coach Toomer.

The Warrior's first game opened against the 1972 T.O.C. champs, San Joaquin Memorial. Wilson went in as the underdog to lose the game by 15 points or more. The Warrior triangle ended the game with a shy 5 point loss to the Memorial big men.

The Warriors faced their second game of the T.O.C. against the Castlemont Knights. The Warrior triangle came from 23 points from behind in the third and fourth quarter to defeat the Knights 71 to 69. Wilson won the game with seven seconds left to play with a twenty-eight-foot jump shot by (Dr. J) Julius Bolds.

The Warriors ended their season by defeating the Arroyo Dons for fourth place consolation of the tournament. Julius Bolds was named one of the 10 best players of the '73 T.O.C.

As the season closed and graduating senior players, Curtis Reed, Arthur Dickson, Darryl Stitt, David Johnwell, Dwayne Harden, Tony Goodspeed, Artie Bridgman, Michael Booker, and Jeff Moreno leave, the inspiration and self-confidence these young athletes may leave in the minds of fore-coming varsity players will be the sure spice of making winners.

Looking Ahead

Step from classroom to a bright future at Metropolitan Life. Good starting salaries, regular raises, frequent promotions. Stop in after school and let us tell you about it. As a Metropolitan employee, you'll enjoy many benefits. Insurance benefits, for instance, include life insurance, disability insurance, hospital, surgical, and major medical expense benefits. There are liberal vacations and holidays and cash awards for suggestions. There is a well-stocked library, free to employees, of course. Many different social and athletic groups help you get to know your co-workers. Stop in to see us soon, at the address below.

Metropolitan Life

Thanks . . .

Working on the 1973 yearbook has been a new and challenging experience for me.

I have learned about what goes into a yearbook, the energy, the work, and the enjoyments of being the yearbook editor.

On this, the closing page of the yearbook, I would like to acknowledge a special thanks to those who contributed their time and talent so unselfishly.

First Mr. Thomas — our fall adviser for putting forth such an effort to get everyone involved and for being there as he was really needed.

Miss Burns — our new adviser for taking on the tasks so eagerly and enthusiastically, and with such dedication.

Mr. Harold Humes — the Taylor Publishing representative for advising us on layouts and helping us when needed.

Victor Adra and Kelvin Dixon — our photographers, for their time, patience, and photographic talents.

Tyrone Taylor — for putting forth extra effort in getting our sports section together.

The Staff — for their help in yearbook sessions, and in getting ads.

I would also like to give thanks to those who bought yearbooks and those who put advertisements in the yearbook. Thanks. You made it possible for this production of the yearbook to be made.

I Thank you all!

Wanda Denise March
Editor, 1973 Shield
